Hi,

There are Sirians who are working on projects to help Earth and its inhabitants. For example, Sean Penn spends 50% of his time in Haiti. Writer Zoe Heller covered the story for The New York Times in 2011. Google “The Accidental Activist, Sean Penn.”

Mia Farrow became a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador in 2000 and has traveled to Darfur several times. Her son, Satchel Ronan O’Sullivan Farrow (b. 1987), is also an activist. He a lawyer and former U.S. government advisor who has made joint trips to Darfur with his mother.

Jaden Smith and his family are working on a project called Just Water sold in a paper-based bottle containing spring water from Glen Falls, New York. Will Smith’s son Jaden has been working to raise awareness about the importance of a paper alternative bottle. Will Smith, his wife Jada Pinkett Smith and Queen Latifah are also working on the project. People Magazine published an article about Jaden Smith’s interest in Just Water: http://people.com/movies/jaden-smith-opens-up-about-the-inspiration-behind-just-water/

Actor Sean Penn, actress Mia Farrow and Mia Farrow’s son Ronan Farrow.
As you probably know, Bill Gates has invested one billion dollars in a fund to solve climate change problems. Keeping plastic water bottles out of the ocean is important because plastic is killing plankton that is involved in the exchange of gases in our atmosphere. Marine Biologist Sylvia Earle told ABC News that the oceans are dying. Google “Meet Joan of Arc of the Oceans” or, see: https://www.yahoo.com/news/blogs/power-players-abc-news/meet-the--joan-of-arc--of-the-oceans--marine-biologist-warns-that--the-ocean-is-dying-165947774.html?ref=gs

Angelina Jolie opened an all-girls school in Afghanistan in 2013. I have never found her Sirian cross-arm photo, but found Jon Voight’s cross-arm photo in 2010 when he played a part in the television series Lone Star. As you know, Jon Voight is Angelina Jolie’s father. Mother Teresa was photographed with a Sirian cross arm pose. Madonna’s Raising Malawi foundation has built ten schools to educate 4,871 children (this is a 2014 figure). Celebrities Tom Cruise, Rihanna, Jennifer Lopez, Gwen Stefani, Demi Moore and Gwyneth Paltrow have helped her with fundraising. Tennis player Serena Williams has built the Serena Williams Secondary School in Kenya.
George Clooney has been involved in a large number of humanitarian projects with numerous other celebrities including Brad Pitt, Matt Damon, Don Cheadle, David Pressman, Jerry Weintraub, Martin Sheen, Dustin Lance Black, Elie Wiesel, John Prendergast and Martin Luther King, III.

George Clooney, Brad Pitt and Nobel Prize winner Elie Wiesel (1928-2016). Wiesel was the author of 57 books about his experiences as a prisoner in the Auschwitz and Buchenwald concentration camps. I believe he survived because he was Sirian.

I have never found a Sirian cross-arm photo of Martin Luther King. In my letter to you on May 18th, I mentioned that I have found photos of other civil rights activists including John Lewis, and Andrew Young. I have never found Jesse Jackson’s photo, but found Jesse Jackson Jr.’s photo.
Civil Rights activists Andrew Young (b. 1932), John Lewis (b. 1940) and Jesse Jackson, Jr. (b. 1965), who is the son of activist Jesse Jackson.

There appears to be missing information about civil rights activists. Andrew Young served as a Congressman from Georgia, John Lewis is Congressman for Georgia’s 5th Congressional district and Jesse Jackson, Jr. is a former Congressman from Illinois.

Sincerely,
